EVENTS

WELCOME TO LOUISIANA'S SWEET SIDE.

We are Iberia Parish; we savor the cuisine, hospitality and events that flavor our special place. Events celebrate our musical heritage from jazz to zydeco, and culinary traditions from Creole to Cajun. We honor native sons like Bunk Johnson, James Lee Burke, and George Rodrigue who have captured and preserved our parish in song, prose, and portrait. Our festivals commemorate the annual sugar harvest, the bounty of the sea, and grand live oaks that cast long afternoon shadows across our city streets and rural roadways.

JAMES LEE BURKE

JAMES LEE BURKE'S IBERIA ON THE TRAIL OF DETECTIVE DAVE ROBICHEAUX

The captivating setting captured in the famed Detective Dave Robicheaux novels of award-winning author James Lee Burke is real. He draws inspiration from New Iberia's people, culture and landscapes for his Dave Robicheaux mystery series with many sites on this downtown route featured in his novels. He noted "New Iberia has the most beautiful Main Street in the Country." Self-guided tour maps available at Visitor Center or IberiaTravel.com.

Every spring, the Iberia Preservation Alliance holds the official Dave Robicheaux's Hometown Literary Festival: Celebrating Storytellers from Iberia & Beyond, predominately in New Iberia's historic district with events around Iberia Parish.

Various venues will celebrate literature and its impact on our parish's culture with storytelling, an academic symposium, workshops, a book fair, literary vignettes, live music, local cuisine, bourée lessons/ and a tournament, Dave Robicheaux tours, a 5K run and more.

The annual Dave Robicheaux's Hometown Literary Festival invites all literature lovers to stop by Iberia Parish for a great time.
